

What do you think
salvation is?

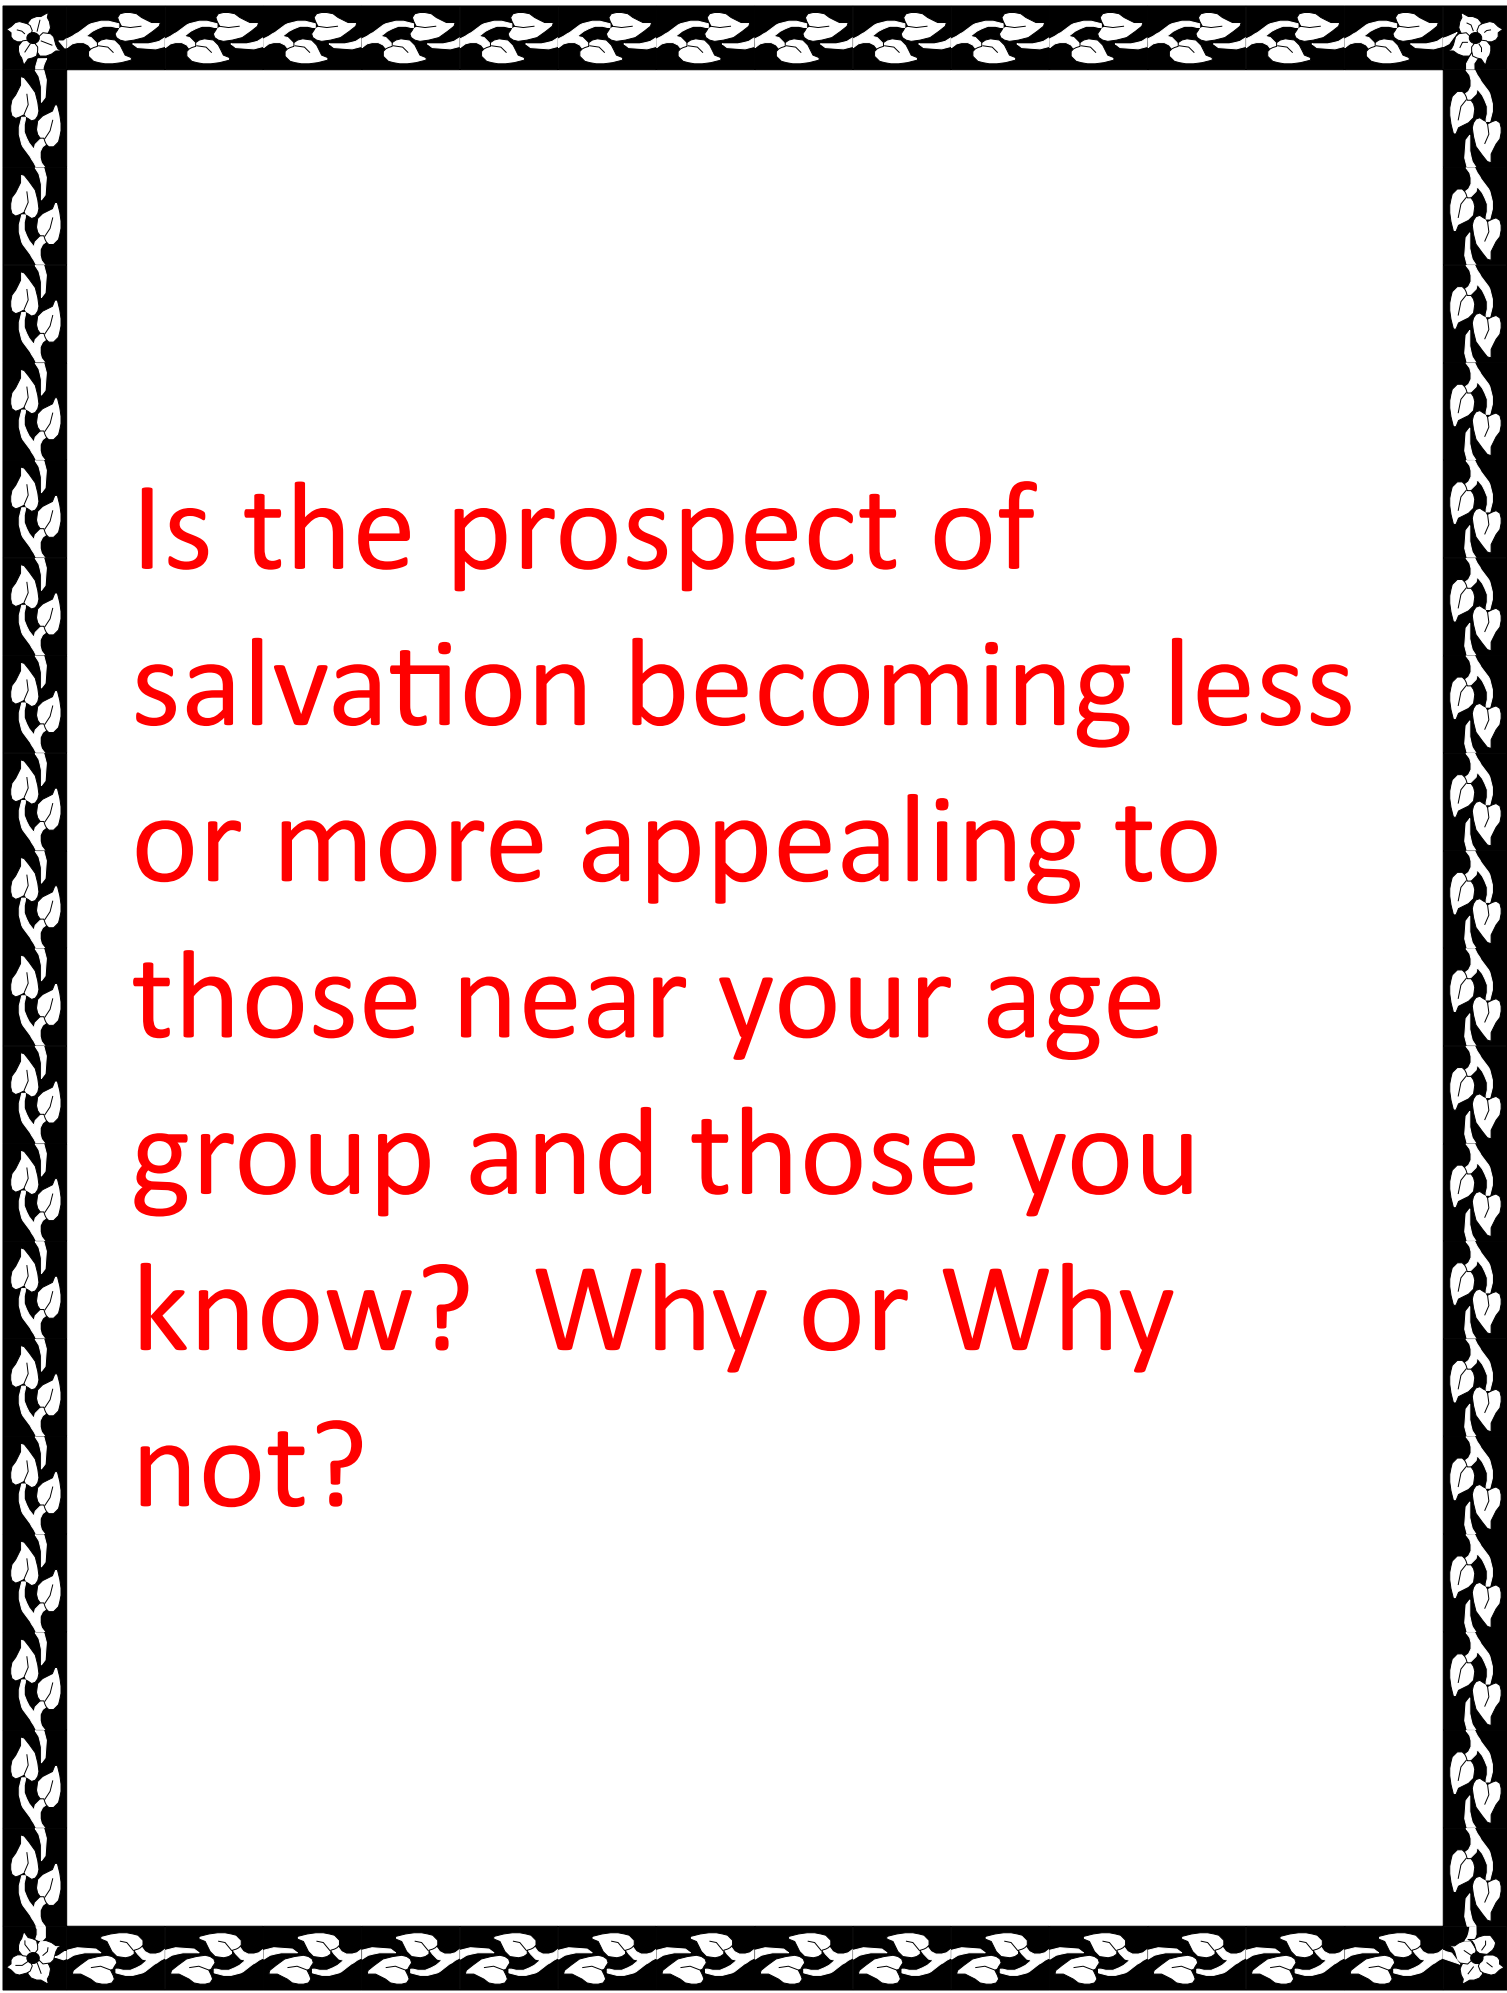

On a scale from 1 to 10,
how likely do you think
salvation is?

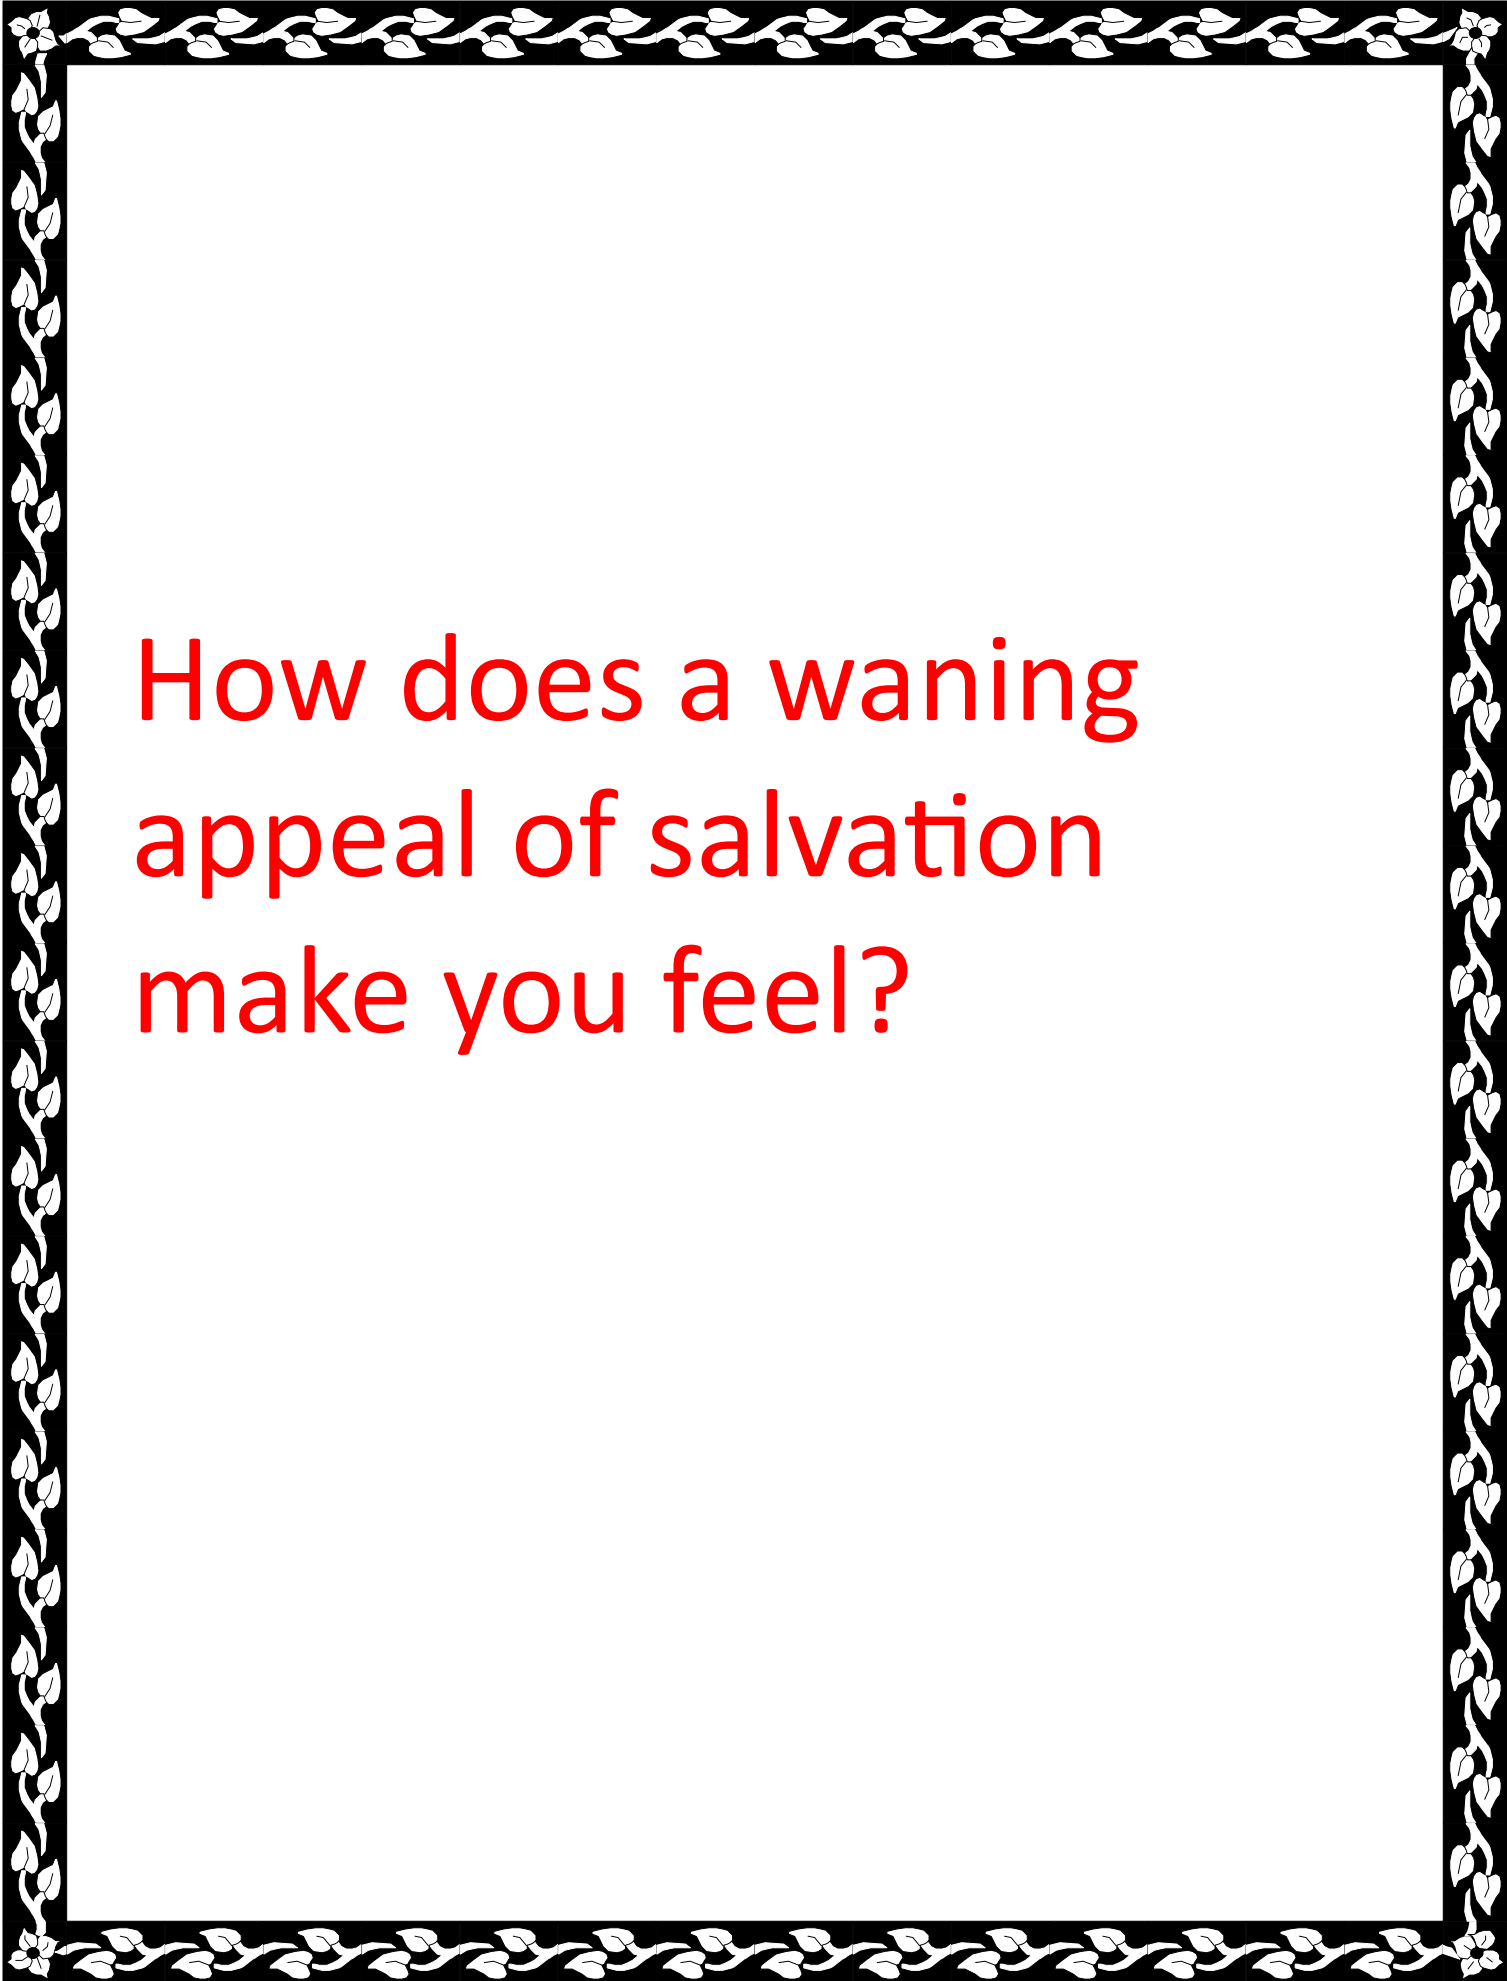

What do you find most appealing about salvation?

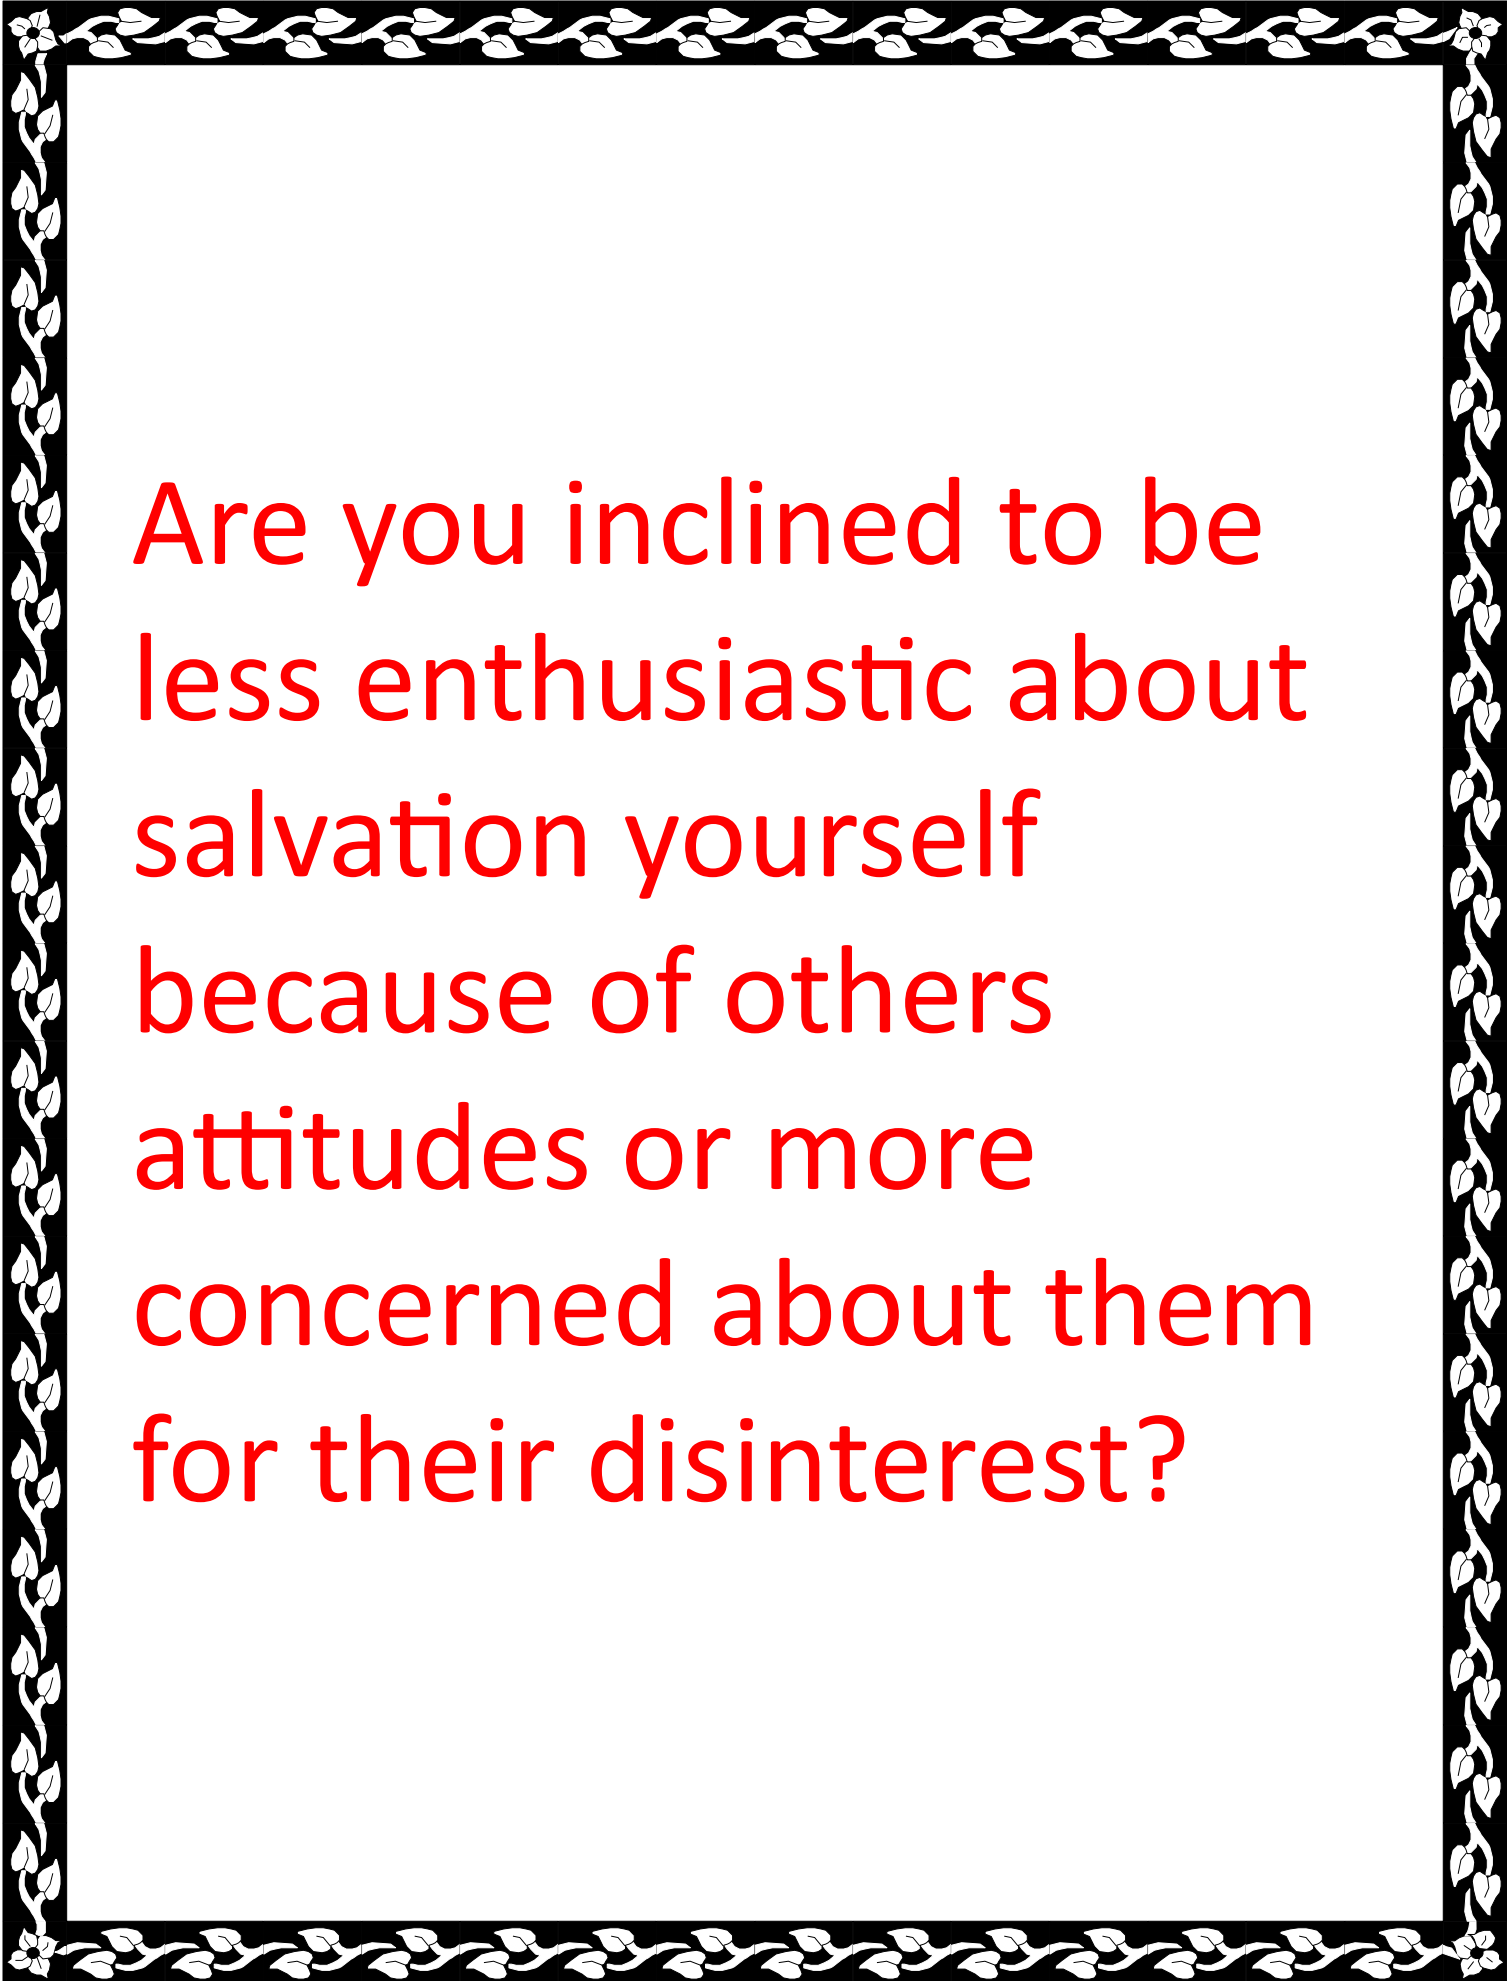

What is least appealing
about salvation?

Is the prospect of
salvation becoming less or more appealing to those near your age
group and those you
know? Why or Why
not?

How does a waning
appeal of salvation
make you feel?

Are you inclined to be less enthusiastic about
salvation yourself
because of others
attitudes or more
concerned about them
for their disinterest?

Are you disinterested or unaffected about what others think or feel
about salvation?

Are you confident
enough about your own
salvation to witness to others about their own?
